Financial Assistance Summary

Wake Forest Baptist Health recognizes the financial burden medical bills may cause for medically necessary services. Wake Forest Baptist Health provides financial assistance to patients who live within Wake Forest Baptist Health's service area. Determination of financial assistance is based upon a patient or legally responsible individual's household size, income and assets.

► Who qualifies for a discount?

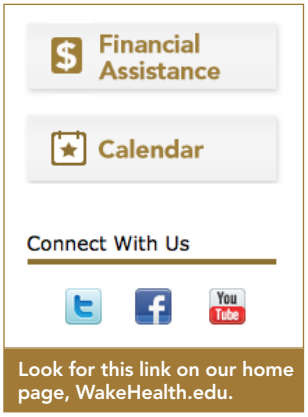
Any patient or other person who is legally responsible for a patient's medical bills, residing in the 19-county service area, regardless of age, gender and nationality.

► What services are covered?

Any hospital inpatient, outpatient or emergency care ordered and provided by a physician.

► How do I apply for financial assistance?

Financial Assistance information and an application can be found on our website at WakeHealth.edu, or can be obtained by contacting Customer Service at 336-713-4955, by visiting the Cashier's Office at any hospital campus (Winston-Salem, Lexington or Davie) or by visiting any of our registration areas within the clinic or admitting office. Financial Assistance applications are available in both English and Spanish.



Look for this link on our home page, WakeHealth.edu.

► What information do I have to supply?

A financial application must be completed. In addition to the completed financial application, income documentation and proof of residency must be provided.

► How do I know if I am eligible for a discount?

Once your application is completed and income documentation and proof of residency are provided, a Wake Forest Baptist Health representative will process your information to determine a discount.

► Can someone help me apply for financial assistance and explain the financial assistance program?

Yes, assistance can be provided by contacting Customer Service at 336-713-4955, by visiting the Cashier's Office at any hospital campus (Winston-Salem, Lexington or Davie) or by speaking with a Financial Counselor at 336-716-0681.
